

Monday, May 31, 2010

Bible Reading: I John 1

Do you claim to have no sin? Do you attempt to justify your sin while condemning other? Do you make God a liar by saying you haven't sinned? _____

Are there any sins that you need to confess? God is faithful and just and will forgive you. _____

---

Tuesday, June 1, 2010

Bible Reading: I John 2

Is there evidence in your life that you abide in Jesus? Give an example. _____

---

Are you walking in the light or in darkness? Do you say that you love God but hate your brother or do you love your brother as evidence that you also love God? _____

---

Wednesday, June 2, 2010

Bible Reading: I John 3

According to John in this chapter how do we know what love is? _____

---

How do we know if God's love abides in us? _____

---

Does God's love abide in you? Give an example _____

---

Thursday, June 3, 2010

Bible Reading: I John 4

How can we know if someone is speaking the truth from God or a lie? _____

---

Who does God abide in and what is the evidence? _____

---

Friday, June 4, 2010

Bible Reading: I John 5

Who has power in the world under at this time? _____

What is it that gives us understanding in this world? _____

Give an example of how this truth has enlightened your understanding of the world that we live in _____

---

Memory Verse:

I John 3:16

By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers.